Debit and Credit interest rates

If, for any reason, any of the clients' Accounts kept with ING shows a negative (debit) balance or, in the event of an overdraft arrangement between ING and the client, the debit balance of the relevant Account exceeds the permitted limit approved for the client, default interest shall be accrued on the amount of such debit balance or of such excess, as the case may be. Interest paid on credit balances on Current Accounts are at ING's discretion and are available upon request.

Compensated value date

In case the Client requests a Payment Order with same day value (SDVA codeword), ING will make sure that the debit value date will correspond with the date on which the PSP of the Beneficiary is credited. Compensated value date is chargeable according to this Tariff Brochure for Payment Services.

Revocation

The Client is able to revoke a Payment Transaction by sending a notification via MT199 SWIFT message, e-mail and fax in case the beneficiary's account is not credited yet .

Payment Orders in writing

- The execution time of outgoing Payment Orders can be extended by ING by one Business Day if Payment Orders are initiated by the Account Holder in paper form.
- It is not possible to include an instruction regarding the Execution Date in a written non-recurring Payment Order
- The set-up, amendment or cancellation of Standing Orders in paper form have to be received by ING at least ten Business Days before the Execution Date.
- In case of a current account in a Foreign Currency, it is not possible to submit the following Payment Orders in paper form: Batch payments and Standing Orders.

BITT (Banking and Insurance Transaction Tax)

Income generated by bankers is subject to BITT. The general current rate of BITT is 5%.
